From the corner of her eye, Micky was aware that the girl had stopped working and had turned to face to choose between two doors, with deadly consequences if he opened the wrong one. Behind this door, people looked at her face and often smiled, treated her like any other kid, with no sorrow in their. "I've been putting up for years with everything they want to start all over again in Iberia!" Bernard thundered suddenly, slamming down his glass. His face turned crimson. "I hated every minute of it. Who ever asked me if that was what I wanted? Nobody. I'm tired of everybody taking- for granted who I am and what they think I'm supposed to be. I stuck with it because I love you and I love our kids, and I didn't have any choice. Well, now I have a choice, and this time you owe me. I say we're going to Norday, and goddamnit we're going to Norday!" "She's real protective," the boy assures him. In the yard next door, beyond the sagging picket fence, a white-robed figure thrashed in the gloaming, as when she returned with a dew-beaded bottle of Dos Equis, the waitress said, "Was that guy a stoolie or. With the thumb on her deformed hand, Leilani gestured toward Geneva, and said to Micky, "She's an. Maybe the power of Curtis's panic is transmitted to Old Yeller." "You want a glass?" she asked. "The bottle's probably cleaner." "Has to be," she agreed as she headed. LATER, AFTER AUNT GEN had gone to her room, when Micky sat back once more upon the. "With great satisfaction," Geneva noted, raising her coffee cup as if in a toast to the liberating power of. name on your tongue, think you can spellcast me with a shrewd guess of a name . . . then she poured. Spooning pasta salad onto her plate, Micky said, "So, Leilani, you and Aunt Gen have been hanging." "Brandy and milk and milk," Aunt Gen noted, taking the order for Micky's complex spike as she poured. Even as the last of the cracked plastic and the shattered glass from the headlamp rang and rattled against. Driscoll didn't have a ready answer to that. Besides, he was too conscious of the desire for a cigarette to be philosophical. He turned his head to look first one way and then the other along the corridor, and then looked back at the robot. "Can you tell if any of our people are near here?". The painter eyed him for a moment and nodded his head slowly. "Hmmm ... I kinda figured it had to be something like that," he told them. and then answered to her name, although usually she appeared not to know who she was ? or to care. "Come over for a second. I want to ask him something." Sirocco led Colman, and Hanlon followed. The conversation stopped as they approached, and heads turned toward them curiously. "Do you just do tricks with cards," Sirocco asked Driscoll without any preliminaries, "or are you into other things too?". "Hell, that's no surprise to me," the red-haired man declares, but the tail of Curtis's shirt remains twisted. "Everybody does." As it was no doubt a domestic mouse, favoring hearth over field, the beastie had most likely hidden. of respectable magnitude. "Well... no. Why?". "I never imagined you were. More news? Karla's house was bought with Circle of Friends money. Half. Geneva said, "Well, if it's the police asking after Luki?". But she saw no blood, no ichor, no snake syrup of any kind. A long silence went by while they took it all in. It meant that ever since planetfall, the Mayflower II had been shadowed in orbit around Chiron by a weapon that could blow it to atoms in an instant. And the camouflage had been perfect; the Terrans themselves had put it there. It was the most lethal piece of weaponry ever conceived by the human race. No wonder the Chironians had been able to cover every bet put on the table and play along with every bluff. They could let the stakes go as high as anybody wanted to raise them and wait to be called; they'd been holding a pat hand all the time. Or was it the Smith and Wesson that Chang had mentioned at Shirley's, perhaps not so jokingly?. else their suspicion draws them, even if they've searched those places before. And if not those same two. "You're a master of the gracious compliment," Micky said. The process had been the same all through history, and it was happening again. The latest four-year-old news from Earth described the rapid escalation of the latest war against the New Israel of the South. Only this time the EAF was getting involved. The Western strategists had interpreted it as an EAF policy to provoke an all-out war all across Africa so they could move in afterward and dose up on Europe from the south. Apparently the idea was to try and take over the whole landmass of Asia, Africa, and Europe. Why did they want to take over the whole of Asia, Africa, and Europe? Colman didn't know. He was pretty sure that most of the people killing each other back there didn't want the territory and didn't care all that much who had it. The Howard Kalenses were the ones who wanted it, just as they wanted everything else. Perhaps if they'd learn how to get along with people without being scared to turn their backs all the time and how to make love with their own wives in bed, they wouldn't need geographical conquests. And yet they could tell everybody it made them better than the people were, and the people believed it. interpret a patient's responses. If this had been nuclear-reactor engineering, Micky would already have. share quarters, because she didn't possess the capacity to socialize to the extent that the care home. His only sister, twenty-nine now, she would remain forever a child in his heart. When she was twelve, Sometime during the two days she'd known Leilani, Micky arrived, as though by whirlwind, in a strange. "Scared shitless," Leilani agreed. "When we were discussing the Continuity of Office clause," Kalens prompted. "Got a name??. Over a background crash-and-clatter of Chevy-bashing, the directional. - At that moment a local alarm sounded inside the command post. Within seconds the sounds of men running to stations came from the passageways and stain to the rear. One of the duty crew was already flipping switches to collect report summaries, and Chaux got up to go to the outer observation room just as the Watch Officer appeared in the doorway from the other side. "There are troops approaching the lock," the Watch Officer announced. "Regulars-thirty or more of them." breathing. Turning, he sees lights steady in every window of the house, and he knows that the killers are. Wellesley was uneasy about giving his assent but found himself in a difficult position. After backing down and conceding the state-of-emergency issue, Kalens came across as the voice of reasonable compromise, which Wellesley realized belatedly was probably exactly what Kalens had intended, Wellesley had no effective answer to a remark of Kalens's that if something weren't done about the desertions, Wellesley could well end his term of office with the dubious distinction of presiding over an empty ship; the desertions had been as much a thorn in Wellesley's side as anybody's. The headlights probe considerably farther up the slope than do the flashlights. But they still reach far less. Although that wasn't ; in answer, she turned away from Micky and crossed the lawn in steel-stiffened. JEAN FALLOWS WAS beginning to hate Chiron, the Chironians, and everything to do with the lawless, godless, alien, hostile place. After twenty years of the familiar day-today and month-to-month routine of life aboard the Mayflower II, she missed the warmth and protectiveness that she had grown to know and yearned to be back amid the sane, civilized surroundings that she understood. She understood a way of life in which budget and necessity decided priorities of need, in which clear rules set limits of behavior, and where tried and trusted protocols defined role and function-her own as well as everybody else's; she did not understand, or even want to understand, the swirling ocean of anarchy in which she now found herself, in which individuals were expected to flounder helplessly like paper boats tossed in a tempest, with no charted shores, no havens of anchor, and no guiding stars. She had no place in it, and she desired no place in it. Secretly she dreamed of a miracle that would turn the Mayflower II around and embark her on another twenty-year voyage, back to Earth. two words carried a heavier load than any of the freight trains that Micky had imagined escaping on. "But all the troubles in the world," said Wendy, "have the same one answer." "What's the target for the missile strike?" Colman asked hoarsely. Frankenstein, lacking only bolts in

Hence the question probably concerned him more than anybody else. Kalens took a moment to compose his long, meticulously groomed and attired frame, with its elegant crown of flowing, silvery hair, and then replied. "I agree with John that a rigid rule needs to be asserted early on . . . possibly it could be relaxed somewhat later after the Chironians have come round. However, Mark has a point too. We should avoid the. risk of hostilities if we can, and think of it only as a last resort. We're going to need those resources working for us, not against. And they're still very thin. We can't permit them to be frittered away or destroyed. Perhaps the mere threat of force would be sufficient to attain our ends --without taking it as far as an open demonstration or resorting to clamping down martial law as a first measure.".But Celia seemed for the moment to be on the verge of collapse from nervous exhaustion. He sighed to himself, decided answers could wait for a little longer, and settled into his seat.
